CHAPTER II

Minimum wages

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages – (1) for the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6 of the Code, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely: -

- (I) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (II) A net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (III) 66 meters cloth per year per standard working class family;

(IV) Housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 per cent of food and clothing expenditure;

(V) Fuel, electricity, digital communication expense and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and

(VI) Expenditure on education of children, medical requirements, recreation, and contingencies to constitute 25 percent of the minimum wage; or

(2) Where the rate of wages is fixed on a daily basis, the daily wage shall, in the case of a six-day working week, be divided by eight to determine the hourly wage rate and multiplied by twenty-six to determine the monthly wage rate. While making such calculations, any fraction of one-half or more shall be rounded off to the next whole number, and any fraction below one-half shall be ignored. Where the rate of wages is fixed on a daily basis, and the establishment follows a five-day or four-day working week, the monthly wage rate shall be calculated by multiplying the daily wage by twenty-six, provided that the worker or employee completes forty-eight hours of work in a week.

(3) The recommendation(s) of the Advisory Board for the fixation of minimum wages may also take into account the arduousness of work, like temperature or humidity or hazardous occupations or processes, dangerous operations, or underground works, as well as the Consumer Price Index notified by the Labour Bureau, Government of India.

(4) The State Government shall not fix the minimum wages below the Floor Wages fixed by the Central Government under section 9 of the Code on Wage, 2019.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages -(1) While fixing the minimum rates of wages under section 6 of the Code, the State Government shall take into account the following:

i. geographical area (i.e. metropolitan area, non-metropolitan area and rural area)

ii. experience in the area of employment, and

iii. level of skill required for working under the categories of unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled.

Provided that the State Government shall not fix minimum wages and allowances of State Government employees under this Code.

(2) The State Advisory Board constituted under Rule 20 shall advise the State Government on matters relating to the skill categorization of occupations, arduousness of work, hazardous occupations or processes, underground work, and other like categorizations.

(3) The State Government shall, on the advice of the State Advisory Board referred to in sub-rule (2), categorize the occupations of employees into four groups, namely unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled, and highly skilled, and shall notify such categorization. For this purpose, the State Government may modify, delete, or add any entry in the existing categorization of occupations and shall notify such changes from time to time.

(4) The State Advisory Board referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification framework or other similar framework for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

5. Interval for revision of dearness allowance. - The cost-of-living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the variable dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages considering the Average Consumer Price Index Number for Industrial Workers published by the Labour Bureau, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.

6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.—

(1) No employee shall be required or allowed to work in an establishment for more than forty-eight hours in a week.

(2) Where a worker works in an establishment on daily basis, any work performed beyond eight hours (exclusive of interval of rest) in a day shall be treated as overtime work.

(3) Where an employee or worker works in an establishment for six days in a week, any work performed beyond eight hours (exclusive of interval of rest) in a day or beyond forty-eight hours in a week shall be treated as overtime work.

(4) Where an employee or worker works in an establishment for five days in a week, any work performed beyond nine and half hours (exclusive of interval of rest) in a day or beyond forty-eight hours in a week shall be treated as overtime work.

(5) Where an employee or worker works in an establishment for four days in a week, any work performed beyond eleven and a half hours (exclusive of interval of rest) in a day or beyond forty-eight hours in a week shall be treated as overtime work.

(6) The period of work of the employee shall be arranged so that, inclusive the interval for rest, it does not spread over more than twelve hours in a day.

(7) The flexibility in working hours shall be permitted with the consent of negotiating union/negotiating council or with the consent of employee(s) or worker (s) in the absence of negotiating union/negotiating council.

(8) No employee or worker shall be allowed to work for more than five hours in the case of a six-day working week and six hours in the case of a less than six-day working week continuously before he has had an interval for rest of at least half an hour.

(9) The provisions of sub-rules (1), (2), (3), (4) (5) (6) and (7) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.

(10) Where an employed person has worked for less than a normal working day, wages proportionate to the hours of work done by him shall be paid to him:

Provided that if such person has worked for more than three quarters of a normal working day, he shall deemed to have worked for the full day, subject to the proviso specified in section 10 (i) of the code.

Provided that where a worker is engaged in an establishment on a monthly basis, and the establishment remains closed due to any national holiday or festive holiday or Labour Day or for reason(s) personal to the employer, the worker shall be paid wages for twenty-six days in the month, except for any day on which the worker is unwilling to work.

(11) Circumstances under clause (ii) of the proviso to section 10 — An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under section 10 of the Code, if he is not entitled to receive such wage under any other labour law for the time being in force.

(12) No employee or worker shall be allowed to work overtime, for more than seven days at a stretch and the total number of hours of overtime work in any quarter shall not exceed one hundred and forty-four hours. An employee or worker shall be required to work overtime subject to the written consent of such employee or worker for such work.

7. Weekly day of rest —

(1) Subject to the provisions of these rules, an employee shall be allowed rest of one day or more than one day as the case may be, every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest days”) which in case of six day week shall ordinarily be Sunday and in case less than six day week shall include Saturday and Sunday, but the employer may fix any other days of the week as the rest days for any employee or class of employees.

Provided that in a six day working week or less than six day working week, as the case may be, the remaining days of the week shall be paid rest days for such employees.

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest days under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer in case of six day week for a continuous period of not less than six days and in case of less than six day working week for a continuous period of the stipulated number of working days as the case may be.

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the days fixed as the rest days and of any subsequent change in the rest days before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect at a conspicuous place in the place of employment.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days or the stipulated number of working days in a week specified in the second proviso to this sub-rule -

(a) any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work,

(b) any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Relation Code, 2020 (35 of 2020) and

(c) any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days or during the stipulated number of working days of a week as the case may be, immediately preceding the rest days, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the working days in a week immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

(3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of these rules, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted- (a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and (b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where- (i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty- six; or (ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and (iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, Assistant Labour

Commissioner having jurisdiction over the place of work of the employee concerned, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations.

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.-In this sub-rule ‘next preceding day’ means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favorable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favorable terms aforesaid.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this rule, ‘week’ shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts—Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -

(a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and

(b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13 -In case of employees-

(a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;

(b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;

(c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;

(d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and

(e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces;

Provided that the provisions of Rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the following conditions: –

(i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 16 hours in any day; and

(ii) the actual hours of work, excluding intervals of rest and periods of inaction during which the employee is on duty but not required to perform physical activity or maintain sustained attendance, shall not exceed eight hours in any day.

10. Longer wage period. -The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under section 14 shall be by the month.

CHAPTER III

38. Payment under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 44.- (1) (a) Each employee shall submit a declaration in Form VII nominating a person who will be entitled to receive the amount standing to the employee's credit in the event of the employee's death, if such amount has not yet become payable, or, if it has become payable, before it has been disbursed.

(b) If the employee has a family at the time of making nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of the spouse or the spouse in preference followed by one or more members of his family;

Provided that nomination made by an employee having a family in favour of a person other than member of his family shall be invalid;

Provided further that a fresh nomination towards his spouse shall be made by the employee on his marriage and any nomination made before such marriage shall be deemed to be invalid.

(c) Where the nomination is wholly or partly in favour of a minor, the employee may appoint a major person of his family, to be the guardian of the minor nominee or where there is no major person in the family, he may at his discretion, appoint any other person to be a guardian of the minor nominee.

(d) If the employee nominates more than one member, he shall specify in the nomination, the amount or share payable to each of his nominees at his own discretion so as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit.

(2) Where any amount payable to an employee under the Code is due after his death or on account of his whereabouts not being known, and the amount could not be paid to the nominee of the employee until the expiry of three months from the date the amount had become payable, then, such amount shall be deposited by the employer with the Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction, who shall disburse the amount to the person nominated by the employee after ascertaining his identity within three months of the date on which the amount was so deposited with him.

39. Deposit of the undisbursed dues under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 44- (1) Where any amount payable to an employee under this Code remains undisbursed because either no nomination has been made by such employee or for any other reason, such amounts could not be paid to the nominee of employee until the expiry of six months from the date the amount had become payable, all such amounts shall be deposited by the employer with the Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction before the expiry of the fifteenth day after the last day of the said period of six months.

(2) The amount referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be deposited by the employer with the Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction through bank transfer or through a crossed demand draft obtained from any scheduled bank in India drawn in favour of such authority.

40. Manner of dealing with the undisbursed dues under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 44. —(1) The amount referred to in sub rule (1) of rule 39 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the amount) deposited with the Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction shall remain with him and be invested in the Central or State Government Securities or deposited as a fixed deposit in a scheduled bank.

(2) The Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction will exhibit, as soon as maybe possible, a notice containing such particulars regarding the amount as the Deputy Labour Commissioner considers sufficient for information at least for fifteen days on the notice board and also publish such notice in any two newspapers being circulating in the language commonly understood in the area in which undisbursed wages were earned.

(3) Subject to the provision of sub-rule (4), the Deputy Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction shall release the amount to the nominee or to that person who has claimed such amount, as the case may be, in whose favour Deputy Labour Commissioner has decided, after giving the opportunity of being heard, the amount to be paid.

(4) If the undisbursed amount remains unclaimed for a period of seven years, the Deputy Labour Commissioner shall transfer the said amount to the (Bihar State Labour Welfare Fund or any other existing fund) constituted under the applicable State law, to be utilized for the welfare of labour."

CHAPTER VI

THE FORM, REGISTER AND WAGE SLIP

41. The form of a single application. – (1) An application under sub-section (4) of section 45 of the Code or a single application under sub-section (5) of section 45 of the Code, may be filed in Form-II manually or electronically along with documents specified in the said Form, to the authority having jurisdiction.

(2) Where an application under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of section 45 of the Code is entertained, the authority shall serve upon the employer electronically or by registered post a notice in Form VIII to appear before him on the date specified in the notice with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any, and shall inform the applicant of the date so specified.

(3) If the employer or his representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may hear and determine the application ex-parte.

(4) If the applicant or his representative fails to appear on the specified date without any reasonable cause shown in advance, the authority may dismiss the application.

42. Appeal. - (1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the authority under sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Code may prefer an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 49 of the Code in Form-III electronically or by registered post, along with documents mentioned by the appellant in the said Form, to the appellate authority having jurisdiction.

Provided that no appeal by an employer shall be admitted unless such appeal is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the prior minimum payment of twenty-five per cent of the total claim amount.

(2) Where an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 49 of the Code is entertained, the appellate authority, shall serve upon the respondent electronically or by registered post a notice in Form VIII to appear before him on the date specified in the notice and shall inform the appellant of the date so specified.

(3) The appellate authority shall after hearing the appellant and the respondent shall, by Order, decide the appeal.

(4) The Appellate Authority shall be the Labour Commissioner, Bihar, or any officer notified by the Labour Resource and Migrant Workers Welfare Department not below the designation of Joint Labour Commissioner.

43. Form of register, etc.- (1) Every employer of all establishments to which the Code applies shall maintain under sub-section (1) of section 50 of the Code, electronically or in physical form in the formats appended to these Rules, the following registers:

- ii) Register of Wages, Overtime, Advances, Fines and Deductions for Damage and Loss in Form IV, and
- iii) Attendance Register-cum-Muster Roll in Form IX.

(2) All fines and all realisations thereof referred to in sub section (8) of section 19 of the Code shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer electronically or in physical form in Form - IV appended to these rules, and the authority referred to in said sub-section (8).

(3) All deductions and all realisations referred to in sub section (3) of section 21 of the Code shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer electronically or in physical form in Form IV appended to these rules.

(4) All register required to be maintained under these rules shall be preserved for a period of five years after the date of last entry made therein.

44. Wage slip.- Every employer shall issue wage slips, electronically or otherwise, to the employees in Form V under sub-section (3) of section 50 of the Code on or before payment of wages.

CHAPTER VII

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

45. The manner of imposing fine under sub-section (1) of section 56 and manner of application under sub-section (4) of section 56. –

(1) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 of the Code may make an application in Form VI electronically or otherwise to the Gazetted Officer notified under said sub-section (1).

(2) The Gazetted Officer referred to in sub-rule (1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within the time specified in the order of composition issued by such officer.

(3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 of the Code for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56 of the Code.

(4) Where an offence has been compounded under sub-section (1), no further proceeding shall be taken against the occupier in respect of such offence. The composition certificate shall be made in Form VIA.

(5) If, the accused fails to pay such amount for composition of the offence, then, the proceedings shall be continued against such person(s) in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(6) Where any offence is compounded before the institution of any prosecution, no prosecution shall be instituted in relation to such offence, against the offender in relation to whom the offence is so compounded.

CHAPTER VIII MISCELLANEOUS

46. Timely Payment of Wages. - Where employees are employed in an establishment through a contractor, the company, firm, association, or any other person who is the proprietor of the establishment shall pay to the contractor the amount payable to him or it in respect of the wages of the employees, in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

47. Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.- Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26 of the code, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 of the code shall, on the written information of such failure, given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

48. Inspection scheme.- For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection scheme by Labour Resource and Migrant Workers Welfare Department.

49 Annual Return. - The return under these rules shall be filed electronically or otherwise as notified, by every employer of an establishment to which the Code applies in the relevant columns of the Form specified for such purpose in the rules made under the Occupational, Safety Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 (37 of 2020). A copy of such return shall also be forwarded electronically to the Labour Bureau, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.
